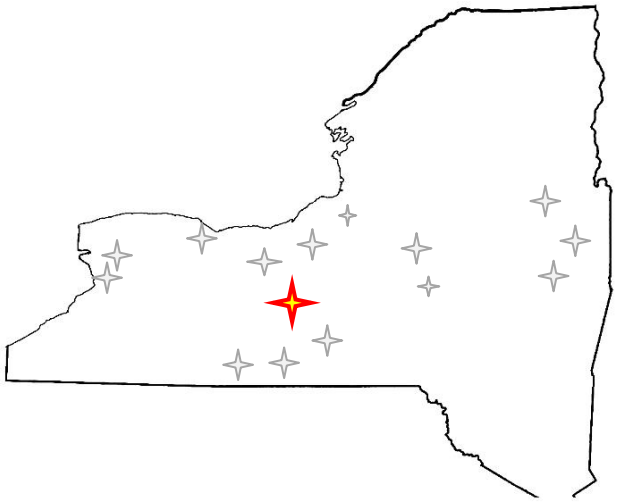
Office of Communications

Orthodox Church in America
Diocese of New York and New Jersey

RELEASE NUMBER 2010.14.1



With the blessing of His Grace, Bishop +Michael, Holy Apostles Orthodox Church has been established to provide a living witness to the Gospel of Our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ in Lansing/Ithaca NY.

Father Timothy Holowatch has been appointed priest-in-charge of the mission parish. Logistical support and oversight will be provided by Saints Peter and Paul Church, Endicott NY, as a missionary outreach ministry of the parish.

Sunday, 8 August 2010, marked the first Divine Liturgy celebrated at Holy Apostles Orthodox Church. Over forty individuals, ranging in ages from 5 to 85, attended the first Liturgy. Father Alexey Karlgut (Rector of Saints Peter and Paul Church, Endicott NY, and Dean of the New York State Deanery) served the Liturgy and Matushka Anastasia Karlgut directed the small, but devoted, choir.

Following the Divine Liturgy, everyone enjoyed a lenten meal prepared by members of the parish. Considering the summer vacation season, it was encouraging and joyous for all present to see such a large turnout.

We pray others of this region of New York State will come and experience the truth and beauty of Orthodoxy -- a living witness to Christ and His message of salvation. Divine Liturgy will be celebrated every Sunday at 9:00 a.m. at Holy Apostles Orthodox Church. For information or to learn more, please contact Matthew Binkewicz at 280-1586 or by email (click here).

The parish website is: http://www.holyapostlesorthodoxchurch.com/

Mailing address: Holy Apostles Orthodox Church
485 Ridge Road
Lansing NY 14882

Please share this information with anyone you may know in the vicinity of the parish. Of course, your prayers and support are requested.

<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<END OF RELEASE -- 267 WORDS>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

V. Rev. Ken James Stavrevsky
Director of Communications ~ frski@rochester.rr.com ~ 585-458-5627 ~ cell 585-770-3496