APPLICATION FOR ASSISTANCE

Introduction

The Diocese of New York and New Jersey is acting on behalf of those who are offering financial assistance to those who have suffered losses from Hurricane Sandy. Application for Assistance will be reviewed by a committee, which has been appointed by His Grace, Bishop Michael. Confidentiality will be maintained. All communication will be maintained only between the applicant and the committee. The amount of assistance awarded will be based upon funds received, the number of awardees, and losses. Applications are being taken from members of parishes of the Diocese of New York and New Jersey. Complete your application and forward it immediately.
