*O God of spirits and of all flesh, Who has trampled down death by death in Your glorious Resurrection, thereby overthrowing the Devil and bestowing life to Your world; As the same Lord, now give rest to the soul of Your faithful servant, the ever-memorable Deacon Mark, in a place of brightness, a place of refreshment, a place of repose, where all sickness, sorrow and sighing have fled away. Forgive every transgression which he has committed, whether by word, or deed, or thought. For You are a good and loving God; because there is no person who has lived without sin. For You only are without sin, and Your righteousness is to all eternity, and Your word is truth. For You are the Resurrection, and the Life, and the Repose of Your departed servant, the ever-memorable Deacon Mark, O Christ our God, and to You we ascribe glory, together with Your Father who is from everlasting, and Your all-holy, good, and life-giving Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.
Amen.*
