Dear NY/NJ Parishioners and Camp Friends and Alumni,

60 years ago, there was a vision: to combine a traditional camping experience with education and fellowship in the Orthodox Faith. From this came St. Andrew's Orthodox Camp, serving campers from around the Church for the past six decades.

In celebration of our 60th year, the board and staff and St. Andrew's Camp invite you to join us on September 23, 2017 as our honored guests. The day will begin with hierarchical Divine Liturgy at 9 am, presided over by His Eminence, Archbishop Michael, of New York, followed by a festive meal, fellowship, and tour of the Camp.

In preparation for this festive occasion, we are asking that our alumni search through their attics, basements, and hard drives for photos or videos from their time at Camp. Please email whatever you can find to saintandrewscamp@aol.com.

Come be part of our celebration! Come to reconnect, or connect with us for the first time. We look forward to seeing you in September!

Asking for your prayers for us,

The Board and Staff of St. Andrew's Camp
