

Liturgical Music Workshop

Choir 101: For Choir Directors

Instructor: Dr. David Drillock
Date: Saturday, June 8, 2019
Place: Holy Trinity Church, 830 Jefferson Ave, Rahway, NJ 07065
Time: 9:30 am – 3:00 pm
Suggested Donation: $20.00

Description: This workshop will provide tools necessary for beginning conductors with limited experience, and those who want to learn basic skills to enhance their musical competence. It will provide the basic skills required to sing/conduct Orthodox choirs. It will cover topics such as giving and getting pitches, singing in parts, following printed music, singing chant vs other music, producing a worshipful sound, and singing in an appropriate tempo. There will be ample practical work and time to ask and answer questions.

This workshop, in particular, requires pre-registration so that our instructor will be able to prepare adequately. Please provide answers to the questions listed on the enclosed questionnaire.

Dr. David Drillock is the Chairperson of the Department of Liturgical Music and Translations, Orthodox Church in America, is Professor Emeritus of Liturgical Music of St Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary, where he taught for more than forty years (1962-2004) and was the director of its music program. He holds degrees from Columbia University, St. Vladimir's Seminary, and Union Theological Seminary (School of Music). He frequently leads parish and diocesan choral workshops throughout the United States and is currently the choir director at the Holy Dormition Orthodox Church in Norfolk, VA.
